

Books or TV

Reading books is better than watching TV.

What do you think about this idea? Write to convince a reader of your opinions.

Think about:

- if you agree or disagree or see both sides of the argument
- an introduction – a way to introduce your ideas by clearly saying what you think about the topic
- your opinions – with reasons or evidence that explain them
- a conclusion – a summary of the main points of your argument.

Remember to:

- plan your writing
- write in sentences
- pay attention to your spelling and punctuation
- choose your words carefully to convince a reader of your opinions
- use a new paragraph for each new idea
- check and edit your writing so that it is clear for a reader.

Home work should be banned

What do you think about this idea? Do you agree or disagree? Perhaps you can think of ideas for both sides.

Write to convince a reader of your opinions.

Think about:

- Starting with an introduction – a way to introduce your ideas by clearly saying what you think about the topic
- Give your opinions and reasons - support your reasons with evidence
- Finish with a conclusion - a summary of the main points of your argument.

Remember to:

- plan your writing before you start
- write in sentences
- pay attention to punctuation and spelling
- choose your words carefully to convince a reader
- use a paragraph for each new idea
- check and edit your writing so that it is clear for the reader

ENTERTAINERS

There are a so many entertainers who have talent. Do you have a favourite entertainer? Are they a singer, movie star or a book writer? Do they act on Broadway or speak on the radio?

Which entertainer do you think is the greatest?

Write to convince a reader of your opinions.

Think about:

- Starting with an introduction – a way to introduce your ideas by clearly saying what you think about the topic
- Give your opinions and reasons - support your reasons with evidence
- Finish with a conclusion - a summary of the main points of your argument.

Remember to:

- plan your writing before you start
- write in sentences
- pay attention to punctuation and spelling
- choose your words carefully to convince a reader
- use a paragraph for each new idea
- check and edit your writing so that it is clear for the reader

